WEDNESDAY, JULY 15, 1857.

ST. SWITHIN'S DAY .- There is an old proverb connected with the 15th of July-"the day we celebrate." It is to this effect, that, "if it rains on St. Swithin's Day, it will rain forty days following."-The origin is as follows: In the year 865 Swithin, Bishop of Winchester, England, dying, was cannonized by the then Pope. He was, at his own reque, buried in the church yard; but the monks thinking it disgraceful for the saint to be buried in open ground, resolved to remove his body into the choir, which was to have been done with solemn procession on the 15th of July. It rained, however, so violently on that day and for forty days succeeding, as had hardly ever been known, which made them set aside their design, and instead erect a chapel over his grave.

SAD CASUALTY .- We learn from the Shelby News that a sad casualty occurred to Mr. Coleman H. Brown, of Spencer county, early on Saturday morning last, which resulted in his death. He was going to the field to plow, and, as is supposed, the horse stumbled and threw him off. One of his feet becoming tangled in the harness, the horse became frightened and ran, dragging Mr. Brown under his hind feet for a distance of some three hundred yards over rocks, etc., and so mangling and injuring him that he died within an hour and a half after being

THE DAM AT RUMSEY .- Dr. R. Haggard, President of the Board of Internal Improvement, was in the city yesterday. He has just left Rumsey, on Green river, where the dam recently gave way, interrupting the navigation of that stream. The extent of the damage has not yet been ascertained, but the contract for repairs has been awarded to Capt. Sproule and Mr. Wm. Brown, who have already eighty workmen engaged.

THE INDIANA BANK CASE DECIDED. - Monday morning Judge Major, of the Madison circuit court. gave a decision on the question of the constitutionality of the State Bank charter, raised by demurrer in favor of the Bank. The question was the validity of the passage of an amendment to the charter when the record did not show that the constitutional forms had been observed in reading it, and voting upon it. The case will be appealed.

The residence of Mr. Thomas B. Combs, as Salem, Ind., was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock in the morning under a stairway, and is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Mr. C.'s loss is about $1,500.

On Saturday night Mr. Wm. R. Bentley's stable was set on fire, but the flames were extinguished without doing much damage.

These insects are sweeping away every inch of vegetation from Northern Minnesota .-The St. Paul Times says: We speak advisedly when we say that not one half enough of corn and the cereal grains will be raised north of latitude 45 to feed the lent population.

"First love" itself is not sweeter than this charming poetry:

(For the Lonlsville Bulletin.) FIRST LOVE.

dreamy sweetness haunts my heart to-night, Like fragrance borne from distant naseen flowers; The souls of last year's roses crushed and dead, Or ghosts of by-gone days and buried hours. Come back to make the passing moments blest As, Idly sitting 'neath the garden wall, watch the lights go drifting through the shade

While at my teet the fragrant rose-leaves fall. Years, years ago I loved a gentle maid
With eyes like dew-drops which the sun has kiased, Her hair in soft unbraided ripples lay Above her forehead like a golden mist:

Her lips, the outlet of a ruby cnp,
Poured forth sweet sounds, like rich enchanting wineI drained the silvery flow till every vein Was filled with pulsings of a love divine. To-night I'm dreaming of a summer eve. When we two wandered where the lilies ican Through scented woods, by dlm secluded streams. Grass-fring'd, and bordered thick with willows green; In wild carese I plucked a bly bell

And crushed its dainty snow upon her lips— Oh how I ionged to be the envious bloom That swooned to death beside the red eclipse; So fair she looked as smiling through her frowns She gazed upon me, in such sweet surprise, wished that I were sleep, so I might come
And kiss the ivory folds that held her eyes— But then I envied most a silken tress

That fell upon her ueck so warm and white And would have died to be the clinging gold That seemed to nestle there in soft delight; Her graceful shadow thrown upon the grass I could have knelt and klased with fondest wile, For oh my bounding heart was prisoned in The dimplor meshes of her wluning smile. Brimmed with delicions draughts of Life's first love We held no plighted troth, no murmured vow, Yet we both felt no other hand than mine

Should place the bridal wreath upon her hrow. Alas, aias for youthful hope and trust I lived to see her made another's bride, And when I clasped her hand no tremblings told Of that sweet time when we walked side by eide;

We met as strangers in the festive throng, No love-light nestled in her stately everseemed as cold, yet still I often turned And watched to see the old expression rise, The glances sweet and strange, half smiles, half tears, The bashful pouting lip, the faltering tone,

All gone, and not a flitting blush to tell

That we two wandered in the wood alone. This memory once was bitter, bitter pain, But now I hold it of all thlugs most sweet, And love to dream that pleasant dream again While fragrant rose-leaves flutter round my feet. MARY ELLA BATCHELLER.

Browning, a notary publis of New London, Connecticut, has been convicted of forging and transmitting false papers to the Pension Bureau for the purpose of obtaining bounty land warrants, and sentenced to the penitentiary at Weatherfield for five years.

> C. T. Minor, of the same place, has also been indicted for a like offense, and held to bail in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance at the August term of the court, which will be held at New Haven. Failing to procure the bail required, Mr. Minor was committed to prison.

AMERICANS OF GEORGIA.-The American State Convention of Georgia assembled at Milledgeville last week. It was very nnmerously attended, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Hon. Benj. H. Hill, of Troup county, was unanimously nominated for Governor.

ARREST OF ANDREW FINDLAY.—This individual, prominent in the criminal records of our country, both in the Martha Washington and in the New York forgery cases, was before the police court yesterday, charged with assaulting and beating a woman by the name of Emma Wood, at a disreputable house. Findlay plead guilty to the assault. The Court then sentenced him to ten days' imprisonment in the dungeon of the county jail.

Findlay remarked: "May it please the Court, I am sick, and can't the case be remitted to a fine?" The Court—No, sir. You are wanted in New Orleans, and in order to punish you for the offense we give you the fullest penalty.

After going down stairs, Findlay proposed to pay the telegraphic expenses to New Orleans in order to give the authorities information relative to his case, which was declined.—Cir. Eng. ARREST OF ANDREW FINDLAY .- This individual, Ex-Governor Wright, of Indiana, the newly appointed Minister to Prussia, was in our city yes-terday. He purposes visiting his children and the relatives of his deceased wife in Bourbon and Scott counties before his departure for Europe.

On the night of the 18th his political and personal friends in Indianapolis gave him a grand banquet. The Indianapolis Journal has a very amusing burlesque account of the proceedings, ridiculing the distinguished guest, which does not exactly comport with an editorial article in the same issue. The latter says:

latter says:

The anticipation of the departure of Gov. Wright has already opened up the sluices of malignity. We heard yesterday on the street that he had been assailed by the Brightites in the most virulent manner, and by some in high places who have no character to lose, and no sobriety to govern their emissions of wrath. We have our own estimate of his Excellency, and have never suppressed it. It is true we have often laughed at him, and given currency to popular jokes about him, but we have never failed, when speaking serionsly of his career, to award him just praise for his abilities and character. Now, on his departure, we wish to see him go with good feeling from all parties. He has done the State service, and the State should acknowledge it. And to assail him now is an evidence of a want of manly courage, and of ordinary sense. He cannot defend himself, and those gentlemen who have degraded themselves by using this occasion to cover him with abuse, will find it a bad business. He at least has a reputation for sobriety that cannot be awarded to those whose attacks have been bitterest. We hope to see Gov. Wright return with the credit of having discharged his duty well, and we wish him farewell with all kindness.

SERMON TO THE CITIZEN SOLDIERS .- On Sabbath evening last, Rev. Mr. Dennison delivered a very eloquent, able, and pointed address to the newlyorganized military companies of our city. It was a thoroughly practical discourse, abounding in the very best advice.

At a subsequent meeting of the Citizen Guards, who attended the services at St. Paul's church in a body, the following resolutions were offered by Henry Chambers, Esq., and unanimously adopted;

Resolved, That we heard with the deepest gratifi-cation the address of the Rev. H. M. Dennisou to the military companies of this city on Sunday evening last.

The suit of David Myerle vs the United States, on a contract for the supply of water-rotted hemp, in 1851, has just been decided by the Court of Claims. After summing up the points, the Court says:

It is difficult to estimate with accuracy what sum it would be equitable to pay a person under these circumstances; but if Congress be of opinion that justice requires that the claimant should be indemnified to any extent, it is for them to determine the amount. The evidence shows that an active and enterprising man of business became embarrassed in his circumstances, and was deprived of the just and tair profits of an honest occupation, by his efforts to promote a matter of national concern. We submit the whole matter to the consideration of Congress, for such action as they, under all the circumstances, shall consider It is difficult to estimate with accuracy what they, under all the circumstances, shall consider just and equitable.

THE SOUTHERN CONVENTION .- The Baltimore Patriot remarks with a great deal of pertinency and Professor De Bow and four other gentlemen of the South have issued a call for a Southern Convention to meet at Knoxville on the second Monday—the 10th day—of Angust next. Considered in a social point of view, these Southern conventions have always proved pleasant and attractive, but for any practical results that are likely to grow out of them hey are absolutely worthless.

OPERATION OF THE NEW TARIFF .- The New York Commercial Advertiser of Saturday says:

Eight business days have elapsed since the reduced tariff enacted by the late session of Congress went into operation, and though the clerks of the Custom House have been kept busily employed during that time, the fears of a serious derangement of money matters by the calls for the payment of duties have not been realized. The whole amount of duties paid on the merchandise entered for consumption has been only a trifle in excess of two and a half millions, or a little more than three hundred thousand dollars per day. For the week ending last evening the amount was $1,894,340, and we have no reason to suppose that the ratio of payments will be in any or proportion, at all events until the setting in the business season.

Commissioners of the Sinking Fund purchased $43,000 of the above bonds at New York, under the proposals offered to them there, on the 8th inst., at a discount of eleven per cent., being 89 cents, clearing thus an addition to the school fund, to arise from the profits of the State in the State Bank, of four thousand seven hundred and thirty dollars.

The editor of the Dallas (Texas) Herald, who has just returned from a visit to the Lower Brazos Reservation, where he had a favorable opportunity of witnessing the working of the policy adopted by the Government of colonizing the Texas Indians, says that this policy is succeeding beyond the most sanguine hopes. In the Lower Reserve there are bands of some eight or ten tribes, among others the Wacoes, Caddoes, Tankaways, Tiwakanays, Keecheis, Anadarcoes, Ionies, &c. They are settled in villages, have built comfortable huts and wigwams, and are cultivating corn and wheat.

SAILING OF THE NORTH STAR—Departure of Parod.—The steamer North Star sailed precisely at 12 o'clock on Saturday, with the United States mails for Sonthampton and Havre, 177 passengers, and $200,000 in specie. Auguste Parot, connected with the extensive frauds upon the Northern Railway Company, was among the passengers, but his wife, to whom he was married on Friday, does not appear on the nassenger list. That is no sort of reason, on the passenger list. That is no sort of reason, however, for presuming she is not on board under another name. The weather was fine at the time, and we had daylight before us; but, had there been rough weather and a dark night, we should have had some anxiety for our little "pocket steamboat."

SUMMARY OF CALIFORNIA NEWS.

SUMMARY OF CALIFORNIA NEWS.

The arrival of the Collector of this port, together with many prominent politicians, on the Golden Gate, which vessel reached here on the 15th inst., has tended to increase the political excitement, and hundreds of expectants of office under the new administration are zealously employed in securing office from the one and nominations to office from the other. All over the State the wire-workers are "laying pipe" for the Democratic State Convention, which convenes at the Capital on the 4th proximo. The feud between the Broderick and Weller factions is growing in intensity, and an interesting and exciting campaign has already commenced. The administration will probably concentrate their forces on Col. Weller as their Gubernatorial candidate, whilst the Broderick clique will bring forward Judge McCorkle or John Conness as his competitor for the McCorkle or John Conness as his competitor for the nomination.

It is said that Col. Washington, who assumes the duties of the Collectorship in July, intends to rigidly enforce the Democratic doctrine of "rotation in office," by dismissing the army of Custom-House officials, all of whom are to make way for new aspirants.

EXTRAORDINARY BEE HIVES .- The inmates of one of our largest up town mansion houses, a few days since, were snrprlsed to find a large number of little fellows continued to occupy the places, a lee naturalist was sent for to investigate the matter. On entering one of the rooms he exclaimed: "You have honey somewhere here," and proceeded to search for it. On removing the fire-board he discovcred that one flue of the chinney was full of honey comb which was hanging down into the fire-place, and the honey dropping from it; proceeding to the top of the house to sound the chinney, he found the top of the house to sound the chimney, he found the flue full of the comb to the top, and the bees still at work. China.—The Singapore correspondent of the London Times says that we have a little dispute here between the English and American authorities. On the 25th of February last the American ship Cœur de Leon, Capt. Tucker, bound to China, fell in with the Dutch ship Henrietta Maria. Captain Tncker boarded her and found she was navigated by a Chinese crew only. Their story was that they had risen against the Dutchmen and compelled the captain to run over to Cochin-China, where they allowed him and his officers to take the boats, and they were trying to make their way to China. Capt. Tucker took possession of the Henriette Maria, after considerable difficulty, and brought her to Singapore. The authorities here sent over to Batavia to give notice of the circumstances. The Yankee hoisted the American flag on board the Henriette Maria, and Singapore authorities sent over an armed force ed the American flag on board the Henriette Maria, and Singapore authorities sent over an armed force and hauled it down. A Dutch vessel of war now arrived and took away the ship, and the Batavia authorities say that any claim for salvage can be duly decided by the courts of Batavia. Captain Tucker then put the matter into the hands of the cousnl, and the American sloop-of-war Portsmouth went ostensibly to see about it, but, as. I believe, to take in the ratification of the American treaty with Siam.

COUNTERFEIT AND ADULTERATED LIQUORS.—A correspondent of the London Times noticed in the list of joint stock companies in Paris, formally sanctioned by the prefect of police, the name of "the general company of fictitions or counterfeit wines." This company states in its advertisement that no grape juice or alcohol is nsed, but does not specify the ingredients. It has a capital of six million francs, and the product is sold at from four to eight sous per quart. The wines are subjected to chemical analysis, by authority, and are said to have all the taste, appearance, and hygienic qualities of the natural juice of the grape. We can see no wrong in imitating wines or any other liquor, if the product is not sold as genuine; and if the ingredients are innocent, the manufacture o mes as legitimately within the sphere of commerce as does the manufacture of pure liquors. The wrong is in selling a counterfeit for what it is not, and in compounding liquors of deleterious materials. The liquor market is flooded with such vile counterfeits, and there is but little if any guaranty either to the buyer or seller that anything is good.

We were lately told of a circumstance touching COUNTERFEIT AND ADULTERATED LIQUORS.

We were lately told of a circumstance touching We were lately told of a circumstance touching this point, which, although not nansual, is still valuable as showing the extent of this nefarious manufacture of adulterated liquors. Our informant was on a visit to a friend, a liquor dealer in a Western city, and in the space of an hour saw him transform a barrel of high wines into "pure French brandy." The barrel was stamped with the custom-house brand, and had all the appearance of a sea voyage and hard usage. The manufacturer poured in the basis of the ingredients (the high wines) and then having scented it with about two ounces of the oil of having scented it with about two ounces of the oil of cognac, added a pailful of a compound which he had mixed from one bucket to another, and which had mixed from one bucket to another, and which was to give it its taste and color. The component parts of this last mixture were absolutely potents, directly destined to sap the energy and finally destroy the life of the poor victims to a habit that leads them to the use of such stimulants! Upon this barrel the manufacturer would make over two hundred dollars, and the retailer probably as much more. When we take such facts into consideration, can there be any wonder that prohibitory laws should be made, or can any laws restraining the traffic and punishing the trafficker be too severe?

ANOTHER ASIATIC RAILWAY. - We observe among other novelties in our last European files, that a com-pany has been organized in London, with a capital of £1,200,000, for the construction of a railway from Smyrna to Aidin, a distance of seventy miles, which will bring the two cities within three hours of each will bring the two cities within three hours of each other, instead of four days, as at present.

The imports and exports of Smyrna amounted in 1856 to $25,000,000. That city contains 160,000 people and Aidin 60,000, the latter being a converging point for much of the inland traffic of that part of Asia Minor, on its way to the scaboard. At present 10,000 carnels are applied at a cort of Advisory. ent 10,000 camels are employed, at a cost of £400,-000 a year, to convey produce and merchandise be-tween the two places. When the projected railway is completed, all this animal activity will disappear.

The Turkish Government has granted a concession (charter) for the projected railroad, takes 15,000 shares, and guarantees a dividend of six per cent. It is more than probable that the creative influence of the iron horse will restore the more cultivatable regions of Asia Minor, now almost a wilderness, to the fertility, prosperity, traffic, and population which distinguished that portion of the world in latter days of the Roman republic, and during the reigns of the earlier Casars. Alas! the bygone greatness of Asia Minor is now only attested by the rains of cities and temples almost innumerable. The agricultural elements and recovers are vast in tabacco. ments and resources are vast, in tobacco, figs, cetton, poppies, the mulberry for silk worms, wheat, maize, barley beans, flax, hemp, seeds, drugs, dye-stuffs, wool, honey, and wax. One of the best features of the speculation is, that there are coal mines at no great distance. Thus are many of the nations of the earth, that had long passed away, about to be resuscitated by the magical agency of them.

VENTRILOQUISM EXTRAORDINARY.—A night or two since, an officer of the Sixth ward overhauled a colored individual who was coming away from the wharf with a coil of rope. Darkey was questioned as to where he got the chattels, and he replied that he was a hand on the steambout Forest, and that both the rope and its custodian were "all plied that he was a hand on the steamhout Forest, and that both the rope and its custodian were "all right." The officer turned ebony to the right about, and both went together on board the boat. Nobody was in sight, and the darkey went boldly to a gangway, and shouted out, "Hello, Bill." "Hello it is!" came a response, in a gruff, sepulchral tone, which Blitz would have envied, and which seemed to emerge from the depth of the steamer.

"Come up on deck right away, Bill; dere's a police got me for stealin' dis rope!"

"'Ay, ay!" ag sin shouted the grnff voice—"jist wait, can't yon, till I git on my trousis?"

"Well, pull a heel den and be quick, for I wants to be of?"

"Well, pull a heel den and be quick, for I wants to be off."

This colloquy served to measurably satisfy the officer, and he relaxed his watchfulness over his prisoner. The latter embraced the opportunity to take his leave slylv, and he took the coil of rope with him. The officer meantime became tired of waiting and went in search of his voucher for his late prisoner. After considerable tromble a man who was sleeping below was roused up and questioned concerning the colored man and the coil of rope. The sleepy individual avowed that he knew nothing about either, and the officer finally ascertained thar he had been regularly "sold" by a thief who possessed first class ventriloquial power.

Dr. King's Dispensary.

DR. A. KING, a practitioner of New York for the last thirty years, has opened a Discensary on Market, bet. First and Second, nearly opposite the Graham House, Louisville, for the treatment of Private Discases, such as Gonorrhoea, Syphilia, and all discases of the skin and other de rangements growing out of neglect or imperfect cure. His long experience and success enable him to act with confidence. All those who may confide their cases to him may rest assured of having the disease effectually cured and every vestige of the difficulties perfectly eradicated from their constitutions.

every vestige of the difficulties perfectly eracicated at otheir constitutions.

STHEOTERS of old or recent date effectually cured in a few days by an operation which causes no pain. Where a stricture exists, general derangement of the whole constitution must ensue, a continuance of which will bring on a train of symptoms to be dreaded, and will undermine the constitution and cause premature old age.

REMINAL WEARNESS — Particular attention will be given to this disease and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on, in many cases, by the destructive labits of inconsiderate youth and excessive indulgence of the passions, which undermine the constitution, repliering the subject unfit for either business or society, and causing premature old age.

OUR LECTURE.-Having been requested by a great many persons to repeat our lecture in this city, we have concluded, though with some reluctance, do so at Mozart Hall on Friday night. We should not consent to repeat it but for the fact a good many people tell us they were prevented from earing it by the inclemency of the weather. Our opinion is that the tendency of our lecture is to do good, and that its influences are particularly needed at this time. We may flatter ourselves in this, but we earnestly think we do not.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared onstrictly acientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United Lates was intended more especially for those of our fractrand scattered here at d there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them. I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirita, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in itseffect, it finds its way directly te the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak, and low spirited it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has in-duced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland litters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations. CAUTION.

An Incident of the Riot.—John Meyers was a total stranger in the lower part of the city, and, while passing from the Bowery to Broadway, on the atternoon of the 4th inst., he was shot in the ride by a stray bullet from one of the revolvers used on that occasion. He remained in utter ignorance of his wounded condition for nearly three-quarters of an hour after the fatal shot was fired. He crossed Bayard street to Centre, walked down Walker street to West Broadway, and there took one of the Eighth avenue cars. He then rode up as far as Nineteenth street, and it was not till the car stopped, and he attempted to rise and take his departure, that he discovered that he was shot. He felt quite weak, and was unable to rise from his seat. He was assisted to his home, and there attended by a physician, who pronounced the wound a dangerous one. The ball, it appeared, entered the right side, and passing through the cavity of the chest, lodged in the back, near the spinal column. The deceased bled internally, and died from hemorrhage produced by the wound in question.—N. Y. Times.

SYRACUSE, July 14.

The trials of mowers came off 10-duy at 3 0 clock, preceded by speeches and a grand procession at the County Fair Grounds. Upwards of 20 machines were entered, and the display at starting was fine. All did well, but it was soon apparent that the real contest was between the Manny, with Wood's improvement, and Ketchum machines. The struggle was close, Manny coming in slightly ahead. This result was hailed with cheers by the multitude, in which the friends of the Ketchum machine heartily joined. The fact of rapidity of work however does not determine the question of superiority. The other tests will be made during the week. The weather is fine, and all the contestants are in good spirits. SYRACTSE, July 14.
